

To Those Who Serve

Men : My country tis of thee

Women: Sweet land of liberty

All: To thee we sing, to thee we sing!

Women: To those who serve, who serve the free.

Men: Those who stand proud and tall and serve us all unselfishly

All: With heart and soul ___ they've answered freedom's call _____

Women: To those who serve _____, who serve us all.

Men (start late): To those who serve, who serve us all.

(2nd verse)

Women: From this great land, our heroes hail,

Men: Putting their hopes and dreams on hold so freedom can prevail

All: They come north ___ from south, east and west _____

Women: They are the brav _____ est, and the best

Men (start late): They are the bravest, and the best

(ending)

Women: How can we ever thank them ?

Men: Mere words will never do.

All: All those who serve and help preserve our great red, white and blue _____

Women: to those who serve

Men: My country tis of thee

Women: Put fear aside

Men: Sweet land of liberty

Women: upholding all that we could hold near and dear, they've lived and died

Men (coming in after lived): Too thee we sing

All: They've taught us all what truth and strength should be

To Those Who Serve

Women: To those who serve _____ courageously

Men (start on serve): To those who serve courageously

Women: How can we ever thank them?

Men: Mere words would never do.

All: Our heroes brave who serve to save the our grand red, white and blue

All: Red. White and Blue _____

Women: to those who serve

Men: My country tis of thee

Women: who serve the free

Men Sweet land of liberty

Women: those who stand proud and tall and serve us all unselfishly

Men (start on selfish): to thee we sing!

All: With heart and soul they've answered freedom's call

Women: to those who serve

Men: To those who serve

Women: To those who serve, to those who serve _____

Men: (coming in on second serve) to those who serve

Women: who serve us all

Men: My country tis of thee

Women: To those who serve

Men: Sweet land of liberty

Women: To those who serve

Men: to thee we sing

All: To thee we sing! _____